

HSBC INCREASE DAILY ONLINE TRANSFER LIMITS FOR PERSONAL INTERNET BANKING

HSBC Bank (Vietnam) Ltd. (hereafter called “the Bank”) would like to express our warm greetings and sincere thanks to you for banking with us.

In order to increase customer service quality, the Bank is going to apply new daily online transfer limits on HSBC Personal Internet Banking channel. The increased limits will bring you more convenience and to enable you to save up to 50% online transfer fees, compared to paper-based transactions. The new limits will be applied automatically to new accounts opened from April 22nd 2019.

For customers who have changed the daily transaction limits previously, except for the daily transaction limit applicable for Global Transfers (Item 1 from the below table) which will be automatically updated, the Bank will not proceed to increase the limits you registered for transactions described in Items 2 to 5 in the below table to the new default level to comply with the limits that you have requested. For other existing customers who are maintaining accounts with the Bank, the Bank will conduct limit increase process from April 20th 2019 to April 21st 2019 and you may enjoy the new limits from April 22nd 2019.

In order to revise your limits (*), you can follow this instruction to register via Internet Banking or fill out this form and submit to one of HSBC Vietnam Branches/Transaction Offices.

(*) not applicable to Global Transfer to your own HSBC accounts overseas (for Premier customer)
